Jung linked active imagination with the processes of alchemy. Both strive for oneness and inter-relatedness from a set of fragmented and dissociated parts. This process found expression for Jung in his Red Book.

Active imagination - Wikipedia

As Jung explained, the union of the conscious and unconscious results in individuation. In other words, this is the 'latent self' becoming transformed into what is known as the 'manifest self'. So there is a three-fold dimension to the psyche: the self, the transcendent function and the active imagination.
