School Days (Spenser, #33) ebook reviews: School Times (2005) is a great mystery, better than the majority of later Spensers. It is usually perhaps just a little dated, right now that Sandy Hook and Marjorie Stoneman-Douglas have transformed our attitudes in the direction of college violence, but it flawlessly captured at least among America's moods in the decade after Columbine, once teenage shooters from well-off families were dismissed because noxious anomalies, nightmare discursions ...
